In speaking of the pot-luck supper held at the home of Madge Little last week by the Sunday school class of girls, we neglected to mention, through lack of knowledge, that the event was given in honor of Elena Percy, who is moving away from Yale with her parents. Her class-mates presented her with a farewell gift, and are going to miss her very much indeed.

The musical program given by the choir at the M. E. church last Sunday evening was a treat to all lovers of good music. Miss Holden is to be congratulated on the success achieved. Mrs. J. E. Staley presided at the organ with marked ability. The violin numbers were finely executed and much enjoyed. The anthems and choruses were excellent throughout. The pastor spoke briefly to those about to leave for college. There was a large and intelligent audience, and the offering which amounted to $10.00 was turned over to the choir fund for the purchase of new music for the coming season.

A Word to the Wise

A wise man would not think of being without a bank account—large or small—any more than the wise little squirrel would think of going through the summer without storing up nuts for the winter. We should all be wiser than the squirrel. Think it over—then ACT.

Hear It

—Then You'll Want It

You'll pass our store today or tomorrow. In the window you will see the Columbia Grafonola, a beautifully finished and scientifically designed instrument. Step inside and ask to play any record you wish on the Columbia Grafonola.

Then you will hear reproductions of exactly what the artists themselves produced on the original wax—nothing more and nothing less. The straight metal one-piece tone arm allows the music to develop fully and naturally. Then there's the only Non Set Automatic Stop. Nothing to move or set or measure. Just start the Grafonola, and it plays and stops itself.

Be sure to hear the Columbia Grafonola, hear it—then you'll surely buy it.
